We all know the summer heat in Florida can be downright brutal, but sophistication doesn't need to die when the mercury rises. Astor & Black, the fastest growing custom clothing company in the US, is by far the best to help you handle our unique climate. Astor & Black can provide all the latest styles and fabrics at a remarkably moderate price. Best of all, no need to wander in the sweltering heat looking for a parking spot when they will come directly to your home or office for all appointments. It's as easy as picking up the phone and calling their top rep in southern Florida, Stuart Lawrence.

Lawrence is a professional clothier with Astor & Black, which provides fully canvassed, handmade clothing at a surprisingly affordable price-point. Custom suits start from $499 and you can treat yourself to a custom made shirt, which starts at $100. Every garment includes options for features such as handpicked stitching, functional buttonholes, custom Bemberg linings, built in pocket squares, contrast stitching, and cuff, collar, and monogram options on all shirts, at no additional charge.

The British born Lawrence got his start in the clothing business more than 20 years ago in the famous Savile Row district of London. Since his start in men's fashion, he has worked for world famous clothiers, designer golf retailers, and now brings his expertise to the quickly expanding Astor & Black. With his knowledge of high-end men's clothing and the endless amount of resources with Astor & Black, Lawrence can outfit any gentleman from the boardroom to the golf course and everywhere in between.

An appointment at your home or office is all it takes to help you create a look to your exact specifications. Lawrence will recommend fabrics from the finest mills in the world including Dormeuil, Marzoni, and Scabal. He also has fine products from every facet of men's furnishings such as bench-made Loake shoes from London, luxury cashmere from Raffi, SubSeventy golf apparel, Seven Jeans, Tumi luggage, as well as many others.

With more than 42,000 satisfied clients since it started in 2004, Astor & Black is one of the fastest growing custom clothing companies in the world. High-profile clients include more than 500 professional athletes from around the world and several of acting's elite who have walked the "Red Carpet" in Astor & Black custom tuxedos. With Astor & Black, your satisfaction is always guaranteed. ■
